

Ezibed.com expands NZ team

Hawkes Bay – 26 March 2008, Ezibed.com (www.ezibed.com). New Zealand owned online accommodation website announces the appointment of Julie Davis as New Zealand Marketing Executive.

Julie is responsible for working with the existing New Zealand client base and developing new client relationships.

Julie's background includes public relations, human resource support, policy implementation and office & travel management. More recently Julie was with OPEN Networks Ltd, a Wellington based Telco.

Commenting on her appointment, Davis said: "I'm really excited to be part of an innovative organisation that is focused on providing excellent service to both customers and accommodation providers. With the growth that Ezibed.com is enjoying its great to be able to provide such an integral role within New Zealand."

According to Gareth Pearce, Ezibed.com Director, Julie has been brought in at a time where international expansion is high on the agenda: "I'm really delighted that we have attracted Julie to be a part of Ezibed.com. Julie will be able to concentrate on the New Zealand market at a time when Australia, Canada, the US and the Pacific Islands are experiencing strong growth".

Ezibed.com now displays last minute deals in 7 countries for up to 28 days in advance with instant confirmation, and also provides an enquiry system for dates between 29 days and one year.

-Ends-